JOB APPLICATION SERVICES

We understand the job application process is filled with pressure and often requires working to tight deadlines, all while juggling your current work and/or studies.

Let us take the pressure off the application process by preparing key documents with you, so you can concentrate on achieving your dream job or promotion!

WE'LL HELP YOU WITH YOUR:

✓ Resume and Cover Letter

We will update or write your professional documents with you, ready to submit in your next job application.

✓ LinkedIn Profile Optimisation

LinkedIn is becoming an essential source of information for recruiters and hiring managers. Is your profile ready? We'll review your full profile and provide specific optimisations and updates in each key section.

✓ Introduction or 'Elevator Pitch'

Answer "tell me about yourself" with clarity and confidence. Also called your 'elevator pitch', the first few seconds of your introduction are absolutely critical. You never get a second chance at a first impression! Begin on the front foot by letting your personality shine and highlight your professional strengths to stand out from the crowd.

INTERVIEW PREPARATION SERVICES

ACE YOUR INTERVIEW FOR YOUR NEW JOB OR PROMOTION!

Your interview coaching session will be 1 hour via zoom, held one-on-one with your Coach.

1. First, we'll run a Mock Interview using interview questions for your desired role.
2. You'll then be coached to refine your responses and receive expert feedback on your delivery.
3. Finally, you'll receive a recording of the session PLUS a 2 page summary document with notes to practise.

We'll cover:

✓ Common Interview Questions

Strategically formulate responses to common interview questions using examples from your professional experience to demonstrate key capabilities. Prepare for any tricky questions that are likely to come up so you can answer confidently. Utilise the SAR method, lead with the impact you made and clearly articulate the skills you possess to achieve results.

✓ Body Language, Presentation Skills and Building Rapport

Receive expert feedback and advice from your Coach on your interview question responses, body language, tone of voice, and other key elements to ensure you present well and build rapport with your interviewers.

✓ Closing Comments and Questions

The way you end an interview is as important as the way you begin. Make a memorable impression by asking smart questions, offering a key insight into what makes you an ideal candidate, and leave the interview on a positive note.

COACHING TESTIMONIALS

If anyone needs any help with developing a plan to build their career and is looking for someone to provide some guidance, structure, support and accountability, I would definitely recommend you speak with Trinity and Views Professional Development.
Sharon G.

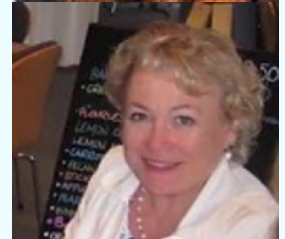

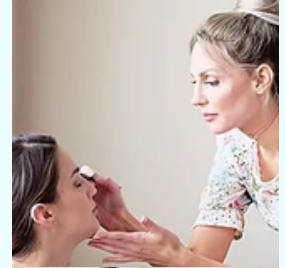

I continue to use Trinity's services on an ongoing basis. The way in which she approaches helping & coaching her clients ensures that they really get results. She's professional & highly knowledgeable but also extremely down to earth. Ross M.

Truly, thank you for being so supportive and encouraging. Your course has given me so much structure, stability, insight and confidence! I learnt so much from our session, you have a way of explaining this which makes so much sense to me. You simplify things in a clear way and your creative ways make it fun to listen!
My perspective and direction in life feels like it has come into fruition effortlessly.
Susie M.

I would definitely recommend you speak with Trinity if you are looking for clarity on a pathway forward for your team, your clients, or yourself. Kelley Chisholm, not for profit manager

I greatly enjoyed completing the program. I have found many of the skills I learnt will be transferrable in both my professional and personal life. I am interested in taking advantage of the learning pathways that Views PD offers and am looking forward to beginning their next recommended program. Cynthia Jobe-Parker

Thank you for coaching me through this very comprehensive program. The section on Critical Thinking was excellent. The self-paced approach was easy to fit around the demands of my job with each unit instantly utilised in my workplace, personal life and every day thinking. I am looking forward to future quality training with Views!
